RECYCLENET IN CHINA

In the month of November 2006, Jamie Roszel from RecycleNet attended several conferences and participated in several tours of recycling facilities along the south east coast of China. He attended the 6th International Secondary Metals Forum in Taizhou and visited with a number of existing and new users of Recycler's World. Prior to and following the conference, Jamie had the opportunity to tour several metals recycling facilities along with a group from globalscrap.com. He then traveled on to attend the World Recycling Forum in Shanghai and met with leaders in the field of technology, manufacturing, logistics, industry, legislation and policy-making.
